Wedgewood

The Larson-Juhl Wedgewood range offers a refined beauty that embraces the true art of custom framing. Four rich, layered finishes with a delicate patina of age, toned to complement contemporary Australian design and artwork trends. The Wedgewood finishes are complimented with a simple, flowing profile and enhanced with classically inspired detailing.

Designed to reflect global interior trends seeing a strong move towards nature-inspired surfaces and accents such as marbles and more organic shapes & curves. 2022 will see a interiors trend towards soft, curvy furniture, accented by anything that feels warm, welcoming and comfortable.

With the minimal look moving to warmer tones and travel-inspired interiors gaining popularity and patronage, the Wedgewood range is perfectly positioned to add to, and compliment the colours and textures of 2022.
