Whitman.

The versatile Whitman range of mouldings features a beautiful, innovative finish with fine handcrafted detailing.

Sophisticated and bespoke finishes elevate the Whitman range to among Larson-Juhl's finest offerings. As a marque range Whitman is not just beautiful but also a proven success and framer favourite in Europe and the United States.

Strong versatile profiles that work well stacked (in combination) as well as individually. Whitman includes deep profiles ideal for object framing, scooped profiles that can be utilised as a unique and classic slip frame, and small finely detailed profiles that will work well on photography, fine art, prints and limited-edition prints.

Whitman works across multiple decor trends and artwork styles, bringing a classic, eclectic, and strong look to elevate your artwork and special objects.
